Phone & Response Duty

- Phone Duty Officer: Chris Ruhl (03/29 – 4/04)
- Response Duty Officer: Nicolas Brescia (03/29 – 4/04)

Exxon Pipeline Oil Spill, Mayflower, Arkansas: From most recent Phone Duty Officer report - Oil spill cleanup crews have recovered approximately 12,000 barrels of oil and oily water. Exxon has approximately 180 cleanup personnel on scene. At EPA's direction, oil cleanup efforts are continuing around the clock. Twenty two (22) homes continue to be evacuated. EPA and the Responsible Party (RP) continue to conduct air monitoring. EPA is increasing its presence with an additional three personnel mobilizing to the incident (one yesterday 3/31 – OSC Mason to assist with Planning, and two today 4/1 – OSC Rhotenberry to assist with Operations & RSC Assunto to assist with media / public information). ADEQ has also indicated that it will have three additional personnel on site today to aid in the response. There continues to be local and national media interest in the incident. EPA expects to receive an updated spill volume by this afternoon from the RP. The USDOT Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration Pipeline (PHMSA) is continuing their investigation into what caused the pipe rupture. There continues to be excellent coordination and cooperation between local, state and federal responding agencies. See attached PolRep for additional details.
